Title of the Research Topic	UNDERSTANDING MISANDRY: A STUDY SET IN THE TWIN CITIES OF ODISHA, INDIA
Abstract of the Research Work	The most basic division of labour has been founded on the differences between the two major genders since time immemorial – with the man being the bread earner and the woman, the nurturer. But with the passage of time, it has been converted into gender discrimination so much so that men doing domestic chores as well as women stepping out for employment has caused a general uproar of scrutiny and criticism in society. It is always presumed that Men are the perpetrators of gender based discrimination – definitely a fact but not the whole truth. While women still face discrimination based solely on their gender, is it deniable that reverse discrimination does not exist? This paper aims to explore the very nature of discrimination against men in the Indian Society and to describe the reasons behind it, along with the fact of such cases being ignored or under-reported.
